Whether you are looking to make updates to your home, or hoping to put it on the market, this lively seminar will provide ideas and inspiration to help you with what's important now! Come and be prepared to examine new products for your floors and walls, find out about fabrics for your furniture and window treatments, explore new color schemes and accessories, and keep up with what's new in kitchens. We will cover the do's and don'ts of updates for selling and show you what's new and how to make a "wow" impression whether you're selling or staying.
